List of Events and Classification of Athletes Adopted by R. A. A. F.

The executive committee of the Richmond Amateur Athletic Federation met at a meeting held last night in the Central Y. M. C. A. to accept the report of the special committee appointed to classify the athletes for competitive events and to make a list of events for each class. Just a few minor changes were made from the original draft of these events printed in The Times-Dispatch. Final registration fees will be charged to the athletes participating with the secretary. The meet will be held in the State Fair Grounds Saturday, May 3, as originally planned. The secretary was instructed to distribute at once. It is also the intention of the committee to have the constitution, by-laws and such other rules and regulations of the federation printed in booklet form for the benefit of the several organizations in the federation. The federation will take a very active part in the Blues-Clubs indoor meet, which will be held March 8. Practically every institution represented in the federation will have one or more relay teams entered in this meet, and some lively competitions will follow. It is not known whether any of the federation athletes will enter the open events. The committee will meet again at an early date.

MANY ATHLETES WILL TAKE PART IN MEET

Virginia and Washington and Lee Expected to Make Good Showing in Johns Hopkins—Fifth Maryland Regiment Games Saturday.

Baltimore, February 11.—The biggest indoor athletic event ever held in this city is scheduled to take place Saturday night at the Fifth Regiment Armory, when representative teams from many colleges will meet for the annual Johns Hopkins-Fifth Regiment Armory games.

Baltimore's Fifth Regiment Armory was built for the people who under its great arched dome was nominated the next President of the United States—Woodrow Wilson. President-elect Wilson is a Johns Hopkins alumnus, and the committee tried its hardest to get Mr. Wilson to be honorary referee, but the President-elect is so busy that he will not be able to join the university men in their annual event.

University of Virginia, Richmond College, George Washington University, University of North Carolina and other Southern schools will send their teams to Baltimore for the grandest of the winter's indoor meets.

The enrollment for entries closed last night and from the lists over 1,000 men will participate in the games. Among the strongest of teams entered are those from the Universities of Pennsylvania, Virginia, Georgetown and Johns Hopkins. Then, too, there are runners from Mercerburg Academy. Many men from Maryland colleges are entered, and there are entries from the lesser known of Virginia schools. One of the new entries this year is the team from Stuyvesant School, Warren, N. Y.

The University of Pennsylvania will send her freshmen two-mile team, as well as Meredith, star quarter miler, and Jimmy Patterson, ten-second miler, and joint star, who went to the Olympic games in Sweden.

From Carlisle, the school of the now famous Jim Thorpe, will come a two-mile first team and all her individual entries, as will Georgetown University, University of Virginia, and University of North Carolina.

One of the most important features of the meet will be the relay team entered by Washington and Lee in the intercollegiate championships against the universities of Virginia and Johns Hopkins.

North Carolina will send a two-mile relay team. Cornell will send her first one-mile man. It will be remembered that last year's meet, Johns Hopkins carried off the largest number of points with the University of Virginia second.

Hopkins will this year try to hold her position. Horra, the hurdler; Dignard, shot-putter; Wagner, the 100-yard dash man, are stars.

It can be mentioned here that Wagner is a ten-second man, and at the meet will be the fastest of the year. He is one of the best men Hopkins has produced, and, along with Rector, of the University of Virginia, he is joint holder of the South Atlantic championship.

Blanco, Hopkins man, a Porto Rican, has developed into a phenomenal pole-vaulter. He formerly sported the colors of Washington and Jefferson College. As pole-vaulter and high jumper he has given the trainers great promise.

It is said that Blanco can clear eleven feet at pole vaulting.

The mile race this year will be a great feature. Hopkins is not so strong. Freddie Lee, the indomitable miler, will not participate. Reeside will run on the Black and Blue. The committee has made all the necessary arrangements for the meet. At least 10,000 persons will attend. The Fifth Regiment Armory will play. Just now the committee is handling every detail to get Jim Thorpe, the mighty Indian and greatest all-around athlete in the world, to attend the meet. Thorpe will go South with the Giants next Monday, and with the stoicism of a real Indian he has not said "yes," and neither has he said "no." With the presence of Thorpe, it is believed that the armory would be packed to its many entrances.

STAR PIRATES ARE HOLDOUTS

Pittsburgh, Pa., February 11.—President Barney Dreyfuss is up against something new in the Pirate camp—holdouts. Claude Hendrix, champion pitcher of the National League, and Bobby Byrne, star third-sacker, and Jack Miller, who holds down first, have refused to come into the fold. Dreyfuss must revise his salary figures before this trio will be satisfied.

Jack Miller made a demand for more salary last spring, and it is said, got a promise. Apparently his 1913 contract carried no boost. Hendrix realized that the Pirates were not going to give him a raise, and he has been holding out since. His salary was small, because he was new and had made no record. But his performance in 1912 and McGraw's eagerness to buy him have changed things.

Four of the six teams will be entered in Class A, while the two from Petersburg will be divided between Class B and Class C. Of the thirty men to make the trip all have entered the doubles and singles. Word from the front will be eagerly awaited by the stay-at-homes.

Six Teams Journey to Washington for Battle With Big Pins.

Six five-men teams, representing the six of all the bowlers in Richmond and Petersburg, will leave Richmond this morning for Washington where they will play at 3 o'clock.

They will roll in the Washington Tournament. After many days of stiff practice, the men feel that they are in shape to give a creditable account of themselves. The prediction is freely made that Richmond's teams will not be among the last. By making a good showing the local will be able to accomplish a twofold purpose—they will bring home much of the prize money and establish positively Richmond's claim for the tournament to be held here next season.

Japanese Cabinet Resigns

Count Gombou Yamamoto Will Become Premier To-Day.

Tokyo, February 11.—Official announcement was made to-day of the resignation of Premier Kato. The Japanese Premier, together with his cabinet, will resign to-day.

Count Gombou Yamamoto is to be officially installed in the office of Premier to-morrow. Baron Takaaki Kato, formerly ambassador to Great Britain, will retain the portfolio of foreign affairs.

The situation in Tokyo was quieter today. The rioting of last night, which seventy persons were killed or seriously injured, and the disturbances which followed, were not so serious as they appeared. The rioters withdrew the batons of soldiers from the streets.

Violent police riots, however, broke out in the city of Osaka to-day. Offices of the newspapers which supported Prince Kato, the Premier, were attacked by great mobs. Several deaths were reported.

PROBABLY PLAY ON SAME GROUND

Army-Navy Game Will Probably Be Staged Again on Franklin Field.

Philadelphia, February 11.—The football agreement between the University of Pennsylvania and Uncle Sam's two academies for fighting men terminated with last fall's game, won by the Navy 6-0, and so far no arrangements have been made for this year's contest. That it will be played on Franklin Field, as usual, is altogether probable, however, the Naval Academy authorities having written the Pennsylvania committee that West Point has been communicated with regarding a renewal of the contract.

The last contract was for three years and proved satisfactory to all concerned. Philadelphia is the midway station between West Point and Annapolis, making it equally convenient for the cadets of each to reach this city and return home again on the day of the game, obviating a stopover for a night. Were it not for this phase of the affair both Washington and New York would be open to consideration as the location of the game.

The National Capital would very likely have a strong backing among the notables who attend the game, despite the fact that it would afford the Navy a great advantage in the way of distance traveled, were it not for the fact that there is no athletic field at Washington capable of seating 32,000 spectators.

Counting those who witnessed the game standing, several thousand more than that number attended the last game in this city, the net proceeds from which turned over to the Army and Navy relief societies amounting to $24,000. This was from the sale of one-third the total number of tickets disposed of for the game, less the expenses of handling the contest. The sum total contributed by the University for this purpose as a result of all the Army and Navy football matches played in this city, exceeds $100,000.
